CONDITIONS FOR PRINTING THE CANDIDATE=S NAME ON THE BALLOT

Democratic, Republican & American Independent Parties - Elections Code ' 7227, 7228, 7422, 7423, 7672, 7673

If the elections official, on the 73rd day prior to the Primary Election finds that the number of candidates nominated for election to a committee from a supervisorial district does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected from that supervisorial district, the designation of the office and the names of the candidates shall not be printed on the party=s ballot in the supervisorial district, unless a petition is filed with the elections official no later than 20 days after the close of the nomination period (March 30, 2006) indicating that a write-in campaign will be conducted for the office and signed by 25 registered voters affiliated with that party. Candidates who file nomination papers but will not appear on the ballot will be appointed in lieu of election by the County Board of Supervisors.

Green, Libertarian, Natural Law & Peace & Freedom Parties - Elections Code ' 7772

In each county the name of each candidate for member of central committee shall appear on the ballot only if he/she has done either of the following:

1. Filed a nomination paper signed on the candidate=s behalf by voters in the appropriate district.
2. Qualified to have his/her name printed on the Direct Primary Ballot as a candidate for the party nomination to a partisan public office.

If the elections official, on the 73rd day prior to the Primary Election finds that the number of candidates nominated for election to a committee from any election jurisdiction does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected from that election jurisdiction, the designation of the office and the names of the candidates shall not be printed on the party=s ballot in the jurisdiction, unless a petition is filed with the elections official no later than 20 days after the close of the nomination period (March 30, 2006) indicating that a write-in campaign will be conducted for the office and signed by 25 registered voters affiliated with that party. Candidates who file nomination papers but will not appear on the ballot will be appointed in lieu of election by the County Board of Supervisors. Elections Code ' 7772.1

Within five days after a committee meets for its organizational meeting, the newly elected chairperson of the committee shall notify the county elections official of his/her name. Elections Code ' 7244, 7444, 7694, 7884

CAN I FILE NOMINATION PAPERS FOR MORE THAN ONE OFFICE AT THE SAME ELECTION?

Yes, with three exceptions:

1. Primary Elections - Elections Code ' 8003(b) prohibits filing nomination papers in the direct primary for a party nomination and an independent nomination for the same office, or for more than one office at the same election. This prohibition does not apply to a party central committee. (Moore vs. Panish - California Supreme Court)
2. School District Elections - Elections Code ' 10603(c)(d) prohibits a person from filing nomination papers for more than one district office, including a county board of education office, at the same election. Except, if there is a proposal to form a unified school district on the same ballot as the election of governing board members of that district, any candidate for a position on the existing governing board may also file nomination papers for a position on the governing board for the proposed district.
3. District Offices- Elections Code ' 10510 prohibits a person from filing nomination papers for more than one district office or term of office for the same district at the same election.

IF I AM ELECTED, CAN I HOLD MORE THAN ONE OFFICE AT THE SAME TIME?

This is a legal question which the County Clerk-Recorder cannot answer. The County Clerk-Recorder cannot refuse to issue nomination papers unless it is prohibited as stated in the first question above. A person=s legal right to hold more than one office at the same time is governed by common law doctrine of incompatible offices. Government Code ' 1099 was added January 1, 2006 to codify this common law rule. This new section states: a) that an officer shall not simultaneously hold two public offices that are incompatible, as defined, and 2) when two public offices are incompatible, a public officer shall be deemed to have forfeited the first office upon acceding to the second.

There are numerous court cases and attorney general opinions which address specific situations of incompatible offices. There is a list of case cites and copies of several of the opinions in the County Clerk-Recorder=s Office that you may request; however, this is not an exhaustive list of all available information and you are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the incompatibility of the offices.

CANDIDATE FILING

DECLARATION OF CANDIDACY - Elections Code ' 8020, 8024, 8028, 8040, 8064, 8800, 8809

ALL CANDIDATES are required to execute and file a Declaration of Candidacy between the dates of February 13,* 2006 and March 10, 2006, in the office of the county elections official. If the candidate is out of the county during the Declaration of Candidacy period and is not able to come into the office of the elections official, the candidate may in a written statement signed and dated by the candidate, designate a person to pick up the Declaration of Candidacy form and deliver it to the candidate. The statement shall include language explaining that the candidate is aware that the Declaration of Candidacy must be properly executed and delivered to the elections official in the county of the candidate=s residence no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, March 10, 2006.

There is no extension for Central Committees or County Council candidates. The deadline for filing is 5:00 p.m., Friday, March 10, 2006 (88 days before the election).

No candidate who has filed a Declaration of Candidacy for any primary election may withdraw as a candidate at that primary election.

* Date falls on a Holiday – opening of nomination period moves to the next business day.

NOMINATION PAPERS - Elections Code ' 7227, 7422, 7672, 8020, 8041, 8060, 8063, 8065-8069, 8081, 8101

A candidate who declares his/her candidacy shall have registered voters affiliated with his/her party sign his/her nomination papers for the number of nomination signatures required for each office (see pages 4-5). The nomination paper shall be delivered to the elections official between the dates of February 13th* and March 10, 2006.

The candidate may use circulators for purposes of securing signatures to the candidate=s nomination paper. Circulators shall be registered voters in the district or political subdivision in which the candidate is to be voted on.

No more signers shall be secured on the nomination paper than the maximum number required. If, however, through miscalculation or otherwise, more signers are secured than the maximum number, the candidate shall in writing authorize the elections official to withdraw the excess number. Signers shall not sign the nomination paper of more than one candidate for the same office or for more than the number of offices to be filled.

The elections official shall not accept for filing any nomination paper unless all blanks in the affidavit of circulator are filled. Before any nomination paper is filed in the county election official=s office, the elections official shall verify the signatures of the signers with the affidavits of registration on file in his/her office. Any signature that does not appear to be in the same handwriting as appears on the affidavit of registration or that is registered at a different residence address than what appears on the nomination paper or with a different political party than the candidate shall be marked Not sufficient. The elections official may cease to check signatures once the minimum requisite number of signatures have been verified.

WRITE-IN CANDIDATES

Any person who requests to be a write-in candidate and have his/her name as written on the ballot of an election counted for a particular office shall file a Statement of Write-In Candidacy and nomination papers with the requisite number of signatures as required for the office between the dates of April 10, 2006 and May 23, 2006, with the elections official. Elections Code ' 8600-8605

Write-in candidates shall file nomination papers the same as declared candidates. Signers on the nomination papers shall be registered voters in the district or political subdivision in which the candidate is to be voted on. There is no filing fee to be a write-in candidate.

NOTE: In contests with insufficient candidates, a petition indicating a write-in campaign will be conducted for the office must have been filed no later than 20 days after the close of the nomination period (March 30, 2006) pursuant to Elections Code § 7227, 7228, 7422, 7423, 7672, 7673, 7772.1. See page 6.

OCCUPATIONAL BALLOT DESIGNATION REQUIREMENTS

Elections Code Section 13106-13107

Immediately under the name of the candidate, and not separated from the name by any line, may appear at the option of the candidate only ONE of the following designations:

1. Words designating the elective city, county, district, state or federal office which the candidate holds at the time of filing the nomination documents to which he/she was elected by a vote of the people, or to which he/she was appointed, in the case of a superior court judge.
2. The word Incumbent if the candidate is a candidate for the same office which he/she holds at the time of filing the nomination papers, and was elected to that office by a vote of the people, or, in the case of a superior court judge, was appointed to that office.
3. The phrase Appointed incumbent if the candidate holds an office other than a judicial office by virtue of appointment, and the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office, or, if the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office or to some other office, the word Appointed and the title of the office. In either instance, the candidate may not use the unmodified word Incumbent or any words designating the office unmodified by the word Appointed. However, the phrase Appointed incumbent shall not be required of a candidate who seeks re-election to an office which he/she holds and to which he/she was appointed, as a nominated candidate, in-lieu of an election, pursuant to Sections 5326 and 5328 of the Education Code or Section 7228, 7423, 7673, 10229, or 10515 of the Elections Code.
4. No more than three words designating either the current principal professions, vocations, or occupations of the candidate during the calendar year immediately preceding the filing of nomination documents. For purposes of this section, all California geographical names shall be considered to be one word.

No title or degree shall appear on the same line on a ballot as a candidate's name, either before or after the candidate's name.

The elections official shall not accept a designation if any of the following is true:

1. It would mislead the voter.
2. It would suggest an evaluation of a candidate, such as outstanding, leading, expert, or virtuous.
3. It abbreviates the word Retired or places it following any word or words which it modifies.
4. It uses a word or prefix, such as Former or Ex-, which means a prior status.
5. Use of the word Retired is limited for use by individuals who have permanently given up their chosen principal profession, vocation or occupation.
6. Contains commercial identification, such as IBM President.
7. It uses the name of any political party, whether or not it has qualified for the ballot.
8. It uses a word or words referring to a racial, religious or ethnic group.
9. It refers to any activity prohibited by law.

If the elections official rejects a designation the candidate shall be notified and the candidate shall, within three days of receipt of the notice, appear before the elections official or, in the case of the Secretary of State, notify the Secretary of State by telephone, and provide an alternate designation. In the event the candidate fails to provide an alternate designation, no designation shall appear under the candidate=s name.

The designation shall not be changed, except as provided above, after the final date for filing nomination papers. The designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both the primary and general elections, unless the candidate, at least 98 days prior to the general election (August 1, 2006), requests in writing a different designation which the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request.

The designation shall be printed in 8-point roman uppercase and lowercase type except that, if the designation selected is so long that it would conflict with the space requirements, a sufficiently smaller type size shall be used for the designation for each candidate for that office.

The term Aprofession@ means a field of employment requiring special education or skill and requiring specific knowledge of a particular discipline of learning or science. The labor and skill involved in a profession is predominantly mental or intellectual, rather than physical or manual - attorney, physician, accountant, or teacher.

The term Avocation@ means a trade, a religious calling, or the work upon which a person, in most but not all cases, relies for his or her livelihood - minister, plumber, homemaker, or carpenter.

The term Aoccupation@ means the employment in which one regularly engages or follows as the means of making a livelihood - rancher, salesperson, secretary, police officer, or construction worker.

The following types of activities are distinguished from professions, vocations and occupations and are not acceptable for ballot designations:

Casual or occasional activity, diversion or hobby pursued principally for enjoyment and in addition to the candidate=s principal profession, vocation or occupation, such as volunteer work or social activities.

Positions held which consume little or no time and which are voluntary or for which the candidate is not compensated, such as honorary sheriff, volunteer firefighter, honorary chairperson, goodwill ambassador or official host or hostess.

A status is a state, condition, social position or legal relation of the candidate to another person, persons or the community as a whole, such as philanthropist, activist, patriot, taxpayer, concerned citizen, husband, wife and the like.

PRE-CAMPAIGN CANDIDATE INTENTION REQUIREMENTS

An individual who intends to be a candidate for any other elective office shall file the statement of intention with the same filing officer and in the same location as the individual would file an original campaign statement pursuant to subdivisions(c), (d), and (e) of Section ' 84215.

For purposes of this section, Acontribution@ and Aloan@ do not include any payments from the candidate=s personal fund for a candidate filing fee or a candidate statement of qualifications fee.

(c) All contributions or loans made to the candidate, to a person on behalf of the candidate, or to the candidate=s controlled committee shall be deposited in the account.

(e) All campaign expenditures shall be made from the account.

(f) Subdivisions (d) and (e) do not apply to a candidate=s payment for a filing fee and statement of qualifications from his or her personal funds.

(g) This section does not apply to a candidate who will not receive contributions and who makes expenditures from personal funds of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) in a calendar year to support his or her candidacy. For purposes of this section, a candidate=s payment for a filing fee and statement of qualifications shall not be included in calculating the total expenditures made.

(h) An individual who raises contributions from others for his or her campaign but who raises or spends less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) in a calendar year, and does not qualify as a committee under Section ' 82013, shall establish a campaign contribution account pursuant to subdivision (a), but is not required to file a committee statement of organization pursuant to Section ' 84101 or other statement of bank account information.

FAIR POLITICAL PRACTICES COMMISSION CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

All state and local elected officeholders, candidates for state and local elected offices, and their controlled committees are required to file campaign disclosure statements including candidates that choose not to receive contributions or make expenditures for their campaign. This requirement pertains to the Political Reform Act that was adopted by voter initiative in 1974 and has been periodically amended by legislation and initiatives. The disclosure reports provide the public with the identity of contributors and the amounts contributed along with the amount officeholders, candidates, and committees spend.

Failure to file complete and accurate statements and reports in compliance with the Act can result in substantial criminal, civil, and administrative penalties. In addition, failure to file within the prescribed deadlines can lead to late filing penalties of $10 for each day the statement is late. The law does not allow for extensions of due dates for the filing of campaign statements.

For information or questions, you may call the County Clerk-Recorder=s Office at 781-5228 or the Fair Political Practices Commission toll free at 866-275-3772. All manuals and forms are available in the County Clerk-Recorder Elections Division or on line at the FPPC Website: www.fppc.ca.gov

NOTE:

Do not rely on this information alone to ensure compliance with the FPPC regulations. Both the Political Reform Act, as amended to January 1, 2001, Addendum and the Commission=s campaign disclosure manuals should be used to supplement any information in this candidate=s manual.

<sup>2/</sup> In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically with the Secretary of State if, since January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

<sup>3/</sup> Committees required to file electronically (see footnote 2) must file this report if an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more is made during the period March 8, 2006, through June 6, 2006, in connection with a state candidate or a state ballot measure being voted on June 6, 2006. No paper copy is required and no copies are required to be filed with local filing officers, including during the late reporting period.

The report must be filed within 48 hours of making or promising to make the payment. No paper copy is required and no copies are required to be filed with local filing officers.

Committees filing the special online independent expenditure reports (see footnote 3) are not required to file late independent expenditure reports on paper during the late reporting period. Paper filings of late contribution reports are still required, including with local filing officers.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits.
- Payments made for “member communications” by a political party committee (including central committees) must be reported as if the payments were contributions or independent expenditures.

As of the date of this publication (5/05), the 2005 Campaign Manual Addendum contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Legislative amendments to the Political Reform Act may go into effect that will change information contained in the 2005 Addendum and this filing schedule. (4) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any dishonest or unethical practice which tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or which hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters including acts intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from registering to vote, enrolling to vote, or voting.

(5) I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.

(6) I SHALL IMMEDIATELY AND PUBLICLY REPUDIATE support deriving from any individual or group which resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics which I condemn. Dear Candidate or Committee Member:

As a candidate or campaign worker for either office or a ballot measure, this reminder about State Law governing campaign signs should be helpful to you.

Section 5405.3 of the State Outdoor Advertising Act authorizes the placing of temporary political signs separate and apart from the normal outdoor advertising display controls. No such political signs, however, may be placed within the right-of-way of any highway or within 660' of the edge of and visible from the right-of-way of a landscaped freeway.

Temporary political signs are signs, which meet the following criteria:

- A. Encourages a particular vote in a scheduled election.
- B. Is placed not sooner than 90 days prior to the scheduled election and is removed within 10 days after that election.
- C. Is no larger than 32 square feet.
- D. Has had a Statement of Responsibility filed with the Department certifying a person who will be responsible for removing the sign.

A Statement of Responsibility form is attached to this letter.

Please pass this information along to those assisting in your campaign and complete and return the Statement of Responsibility form to the appropriate district office located in your area. We will gladly answer any questions regarding the form.

Because the law directs the Department of Transportation to remove signs that do not comply with the regulations before an election and to bill the responsible party for removal costs after the election, we are calling these provisions to your attention to avoid possible embarrassment to you and your supporters.
